

BELLS MILL BRIDGE.

Covered Bridge Over Sewickley Creek
Near West Newton, Westmoreland County, Pa.

HABS No. PA-415

HABS
PA
65 NEWTNY
1-

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District of Pennsylvania No. 4

Historic American Buildings Survey
Lamont H. Button, District Officer
119 E. Montgomery Ave. Pittsburgh, Pa.

BELLS MILL BRIDGE
Covered Bridge over Sewickley Creek
Near West Newton, Pa.

Owner Westmoreland Co. Pa.
County Court House, Greensburg, Pa.

Date of Erection 1850.

Architect Unknown.

Builder Daniel McCain.

Present Condition Framing is in good condition: but the roofing is badly corroded: Much of the exterior clapboarding is loose, and some are broken: Flooring has been maintained in good condition.

Number of stories One Story.

Materials of Construction The piers are of sandstone: One pier has been reinforced with a concrete base: The frame is of hewn and sawed oak timbers: The exterior is covered with clapboards, and the roof is of corrugated iron. The floor is of oak plank, with plank treads laid down on top of same.

Other Existing Records Date of erection and name of Builder were secured from the Board of Commissioners of Westmoreland County, Greensburg, Pa.

Leo A. McMullen.

Approved

Lamont H. Button-District Officer

Pw. Dec. 1, '36, T.T.W.